

Conflict Minerals Procurement Policy

We, Tera Probe Inc., are committed to promoting, in cooperation with the business partners, to prohibit the use of conflict minerals (tantalum, tin, tungsten and gold) as raw materials, which are produced in Democratic Republic of Congo and the adjacent countries, against the sources of funding for the regional conflict and human rights violations.

We would appreciate the business partners for understanding and cooperation on this policy and on our survey request.