

Compliance Training

We make a training plan annually to raise awareness of the compliance among directors, officers and employees.

The department in charge of compliance training set a theme deemed appropriate in light of amendments of applicable laws, social environment, and situation of the Group, and exercise such training in accordance with the plan.

Past performance:

Regulation on insider trading, Business and Human Rights, and Compliance Training